9th Annual

MASTERS RACE CAMP

with the Skinner Brothers,

Don Sears, Nate Schwing, Scott Veenis, James Tautkas

Sept. 9-19, 2011

The Masters are returning to Chile for what is now an annual early season jump on the competitive season. The lodging and meals (waiters wear ties!) are first class, the skiing terrain and grooming, unbelievable! This season feature four South American Masters races!

Valle Nevado offers 2600 vertical feet of winter to spring ski conditions during the optimum pre season training period. It is located just 2 ½ hours from Santiago airport. The camp will start Sept. 9th with a half day of skiing, after arriving from the Santiago airport. (Depart from the US on the 8th) Two full days will be spent on technical drills and skiing modern technique. There after, days will be split between GS & SL in addition this year multiple morning Super G sessions are planned. You can count on being in mid season form by the last day Sept. 19th.

Coaches: Coaches will be Bill & Bob Skinner, Don Sears from the Park City Masters, Nate Schwing Sun Valley coach, James Tautkas PC Ski Ed. coach and by popular demand coach Scott Veenis now coaching for Rowmark Acedemy.

Cost: $2995 double occupancy for ten nights lodging, meals (breakfast & dinner), coaching, races, eleven days lifts, group airport transportation on arrival & departure day. $3850 for single occupancy. Limited # of single's available on first sign up basis.

Not included: Airfare, alcoholic beverages, restaurant gratuities, est. $100 US for Chile visa and Master race entry fees. Departure recommended on Delta or American leaving on the pm flight non-stop to Santiago on the 8th from Atlanta, Dallas or LAX arriving Santiago the morning of the 9th)

Emphasis: Technical & Super G event training, gate drills, gate training, multiple mornings of Super G, timed runs, daily video analysis and lots of early season free ski drills.
