

Far West Masters Ski Racing

Mammoth Dan Malonson Memorial DHx2 / SGx2 / SG January 19-22, 2017

Speed racing returns to Mammoth Mountain in January with a packed event featuring two DH races and three SG races, with the first DH on Friday and the first SG on Saturday counted for the 2017 Masters National Speed Series. Mammoth's top-notch race crew knows how to put on a great speed event and these races will provide a preview of the speed venues for the National Championships in March, as well as a tune-up for the FIS Masters/Western Championships at Park City UT on Feb. 3-5.

This year's Mammoth Masters Memorial event is dedicated to the memory of Dan Malonson, an avid competitor from our Mammoth masters group who passed away last winter. We miss Dan, and our other wonderful racing friends lost in recent years, and this event is an opportunity to honor their memories and share their joy of ski racing.
