

Far West Masters Ski Racing

Mammoth Speed Series DHx2 / SGx2 / SG Jan. 24-27, 2019

Speed racing returns to Mammoth Mountain in January with a packed event featuring two DH races and 3 SG races over four days of racing. Mammoth's top-notch race crew knows how to put on a great speed event and the race venue is accommodating to both experienced as well as athletes new to speed competition.

As an added incentive, the first DH race on Friday and the first SG race on Saturday are counted in the 2019 National Speed Series. <https://usalpinemasters.org/2019/nss> And the race venues will be the site of the DH and SG race at the 2019 Masters National Championships in March, so our January speed event is a great opportunity to "get up to speed"!!

*IMPORTANT: DH training on Thursday is REQUIRED for Friday DH competitors! You MUST participate in at least one training run to be eligible to compete.
